WELCOME to the 27th International Guitar Festival of Great Britain.

This year we are proud to bring you some of the finest guitarists currently playing and bands that feature the guitar as an integral part of their music. Once again, the festival sets out to show the breadth and range of the guitar as music has moved into the 21st Century.

The festival has always attempted to place the musicians in intimate settings where the audience feels connected with the artists. The main house and Blue Lounge at the Floral Pavilion as well as The Queens Royal Hotel are perfect for this synergy.

Classical music, Jazz, Folk, Blues, Rock'n'Roll and Rock are all here throughout November setting Wirral alight with great music.

WHERE IT ALL BEGAN

In 1988, Wirral Council's newly appointed Arts Officer, Rob Smith, was looking to create a different kind of 'community festival' for Wirral. At the reopening of the recently refurbished Birkenhead Priory, he met musician Brendan McCormack, who suggested a guitar festival which celebrated the guitar in all of its styles and musical genres. Their aim was to bring top class national and international players to Wirral performing the widest range of styles and repertoire, whilst also providing a platform for local talent.

The month of November, unlike summer festival months, offered little competition and also allowed better access to guitarists who might otherwise have been busy. In November 1989, the first 'Wirral International Guitar Festival' ran for 7 days, presented 18 concerts and events, and was a resounding success. In 1991 the name was changed to the International Guitar Festival of Great Britain.

Now, under the directorship of Dave Tracey, it continues that spirit of attracting the best international artists, whilst also showcasing very talented local players.

Please join us in celebrating the guitar! We look forward to your company.

The International Guitar Festival of Great Britain Team.

THE QUEENS ROYAL

We're delighted to be partnering once again with our neighbours The Queens Royal to present the Brendan McCormack Series.

The first floor concert room seats up to 100 people and is ideally suited for classical and jazz concerts and perfectly complements the programme at the Floral Pavilion's main auditorium and Blue Lounge.

This imposing, Victorian building on the seafront is also a hotel, restaurant and home to a runner-up CAMRA Best Pub.

The relaxed and friendly bar at The Queens Royal is extremely popular with both locals, residents and Floral Pavilion theatregoers and in April was renamed 'The Stage Door Tap @ The Queen's Royal' featuring old theatre and

New Brighton photographs to add to an already existing gallery of old New Brighton snaps and advertisements, some dating back to the Victorian seaside resort era.

THE BRENDAN MCCORMACK SERIES

Liverpool-born Brendan McCormack co-founded the International Guitar Festival of Great Britain with Rob Smith in 1988. He was the director of the festival for many years and encouraged many guitarists to play in Wirral for the first time through his powerful personality and the respect he earned as a virtuoso guitarist.

Brendan was able to play in any style with great skill and panache. Rock, Classical and Early Music all interested him. Performing in concert halls, theatres or cafés, Brendan always respected the audience and left them bathed in the majesty of the music he played for them. Brendan sadly died unexpectedly in 2009.

The International Guitar Festival of Great Britain owes him an immense debt of gratitude and will always present his concert series.

COMPETITION

Win a pair of tickets to the Brendan McCormack Series at The Queens Royal.

The series includes concerts from Modjango, John Goldie and Peter Price.

To win a pair of tickets to the series answer the following question:

Where and when did Guitar Festival founders Brendan McCormack and Rob Smith meet?

Email answers to: floralpaviliontheatre@wirral.gov.uk by Friday 2nd October 2015.

The winner will be contacted on Monday 5th October 2015.

GERRY MURPHY
ME, MYSELF AND I TOUR
THU 5th NOV 7:30pm
The Queens Royal | £13 (£11)
Brendan McCormack Series

A veteran acoustic 'power-solo' player and winner of the prestigious PRS John Lennon Award for songwriting, Gerry Murphy has played the Guitar Festival on previous occasions at Birkenhead Priory, the Plaza Lounge at the Floral Pavilion, Williamson Art Gallery and now comes to The Queens.

He is author of Sweet Liberty, Marvellous Marvin Gaye and re-worker of titles like Valerie in swing jazz style and Pinball Wizard in the style of Johnny Cash.

His performance is a mix of acoustic folk guitar styles, blues licks, soul vibes and good times and will feature his Harmony Valencia (1935), Dick Knight 12-string (1970), his Golden Vision customised guitar, and Gibson Gospel acoustic (1976).

PETER PRICE
SUN 8th NOV 7:30pm
The Queens Royal | £13 (£11)
Brendan McCormack Series

A mind-boggling mastery of the acoustic guitar, a rich singing voice, and a relaxed yet compelling stage presence have garnered Warrington's Peter Price a brilliant international reputation and so far taken him to festivals and concert venues throughout the UK, Europe and North America. He will take you on strange and exotic journeys from the country blues style of Robert Johnson, Blind Willie McTell and Leadbelly, to Latin American dances, Celtic Pipe and Harp tunes, Hymns and Indian Ragas.

TONY REMY
& THE STOLEN CLONES
THU 19th NOV 7:30pm
Floral Pavilion Blue Lounge
£17 (£15)

Tony Remy is one of the world's most exciting guitar players with a style infused with jazz rhythms and bluesy soul. He has played with so many Jazz players it is hard to know where to begin - Courtney Pine, Jason Rebello, Jean Toussaint and US3. He has also worked with trumpeter Freddie Hubbard and legendary pianist, Herbie Hancock as well as Annie Lennox and the late great Jack Bruce.

The Stolen Clones are a fabulously inventive band made up of some of today's finest musicians. We are certain that this gig will excite even the most jaded listener. Prepare to be blown away!

fashion in 1979 and form a band 'just to play the blues'.

About 20 albums and thousands of gigs later, they've earned a reputation around the world as one of the finest exponents of the blues tradition in all its forms. With this line-up, it's hardly surprising.

NASHER
FRI 6th NOV 7:30pm
Floral Pavilion Blue Lounge
£13 (£11)

As a member of 80's pop sensation Frankie Goes To Hollywood, guitarist Nasher topped the charts and travelled the world. The band exploded in 1984 and imploded in 1987 and most people think that was the end of the story. Nasher has been very quietly writing, producing and recoding his own music and to date has three solo albums under his belt. His gigs are a cross between an engaging troubador and an aspiring comedian interspersed with Nasher's own compositions and maybe an odd Frankie tune.

THE RICK VITO BAND
SUN 15th NOV 7:30pm
Floral Pavilion Blue Lounge
£19 (£17)

Philadelphian guitarist Rick Vito has a musical pedigree second to none. Early in his career he played alongside Delaney and Bonnie, Todd Rundgren and Little Richard. His playing has been influenced by such players as James Burton, B.B. King and Keith Richards.

Rick is perhaps best remembered for his work with John Mayall and Fleetwood Mac and continues to play with Mick Fleetwood in his blues band. He has also worked with Roger McGuinn, Bonnie Raitt, Rita Coolidge, Maria Muldau, Dolly Parton and Bob Seger. Simply put Rick is one of the world's greatest guitarists.

LIVE IN CONCERT
WITH VERY SPECIAL GUEST
GREG VARLOTTA
SAT 21st NOV 8:00pm
Floral Pavilion Theatre
£43.50 & £33.50

Legendary American songwriter, virtuoso guitarist and pianist, Nils Lofgren toured with Bruce Springsteen as a long-time member of the E Street Band on both the 2012-13 Wrecking Ball tour and the 2014 High Hopes tour. Known for his world-class guitar playing and his on-stage acrobatics, Nils is a true Rock legend in his own right and a superb front-man. He is now back in the UK as part of the Guitar Festival to perform his own legendary live show. Nils will be joined for an acoustic set by multi-instrumentalist Greg Varlotta.

THE BLOCKHEADS

FRI 13th NOV 7:30pm
Floral Pavilion Theatre | £24

Formed in 1977 to promote Ian Dury's album New Boots and Panties on the first Stiff Records UK tour, Chaz Jankel, Norman Watt-Roy, Charlie Charles, John Turnbull and Mick Gallagher became known as 'The Blockheads'. In 1979 Hit Me With Your Rhythm Stick became a number one hit record but by 1982 Ian Dury & The Blockheads had disbanded.

In 1990 the death of Charlie Charles re-united them to play two benefit gigs and now, 15 years since the subsequent death of Ian Dury, The Blockheads continue to build their 'wall of sound'.

RICKY ROSS THE LYRIC BOOK LIVE

SUN 15th NOV 8:00pm
Floral Pavilion Theatre | £25.50

Ricky Ross embarks on his most intimate UK tour yet, performing songs from his extensive song-writing catalogue. 30 years of songs, from Deacon Blue and beyond.

This will be a unique opportunity to see Ricky present some of his most famous songs as they were first written, by him, sitting at a piano or picking up a guitar. And it's a chance for Ricky to engage the audience with the stories about the people, places and ideas that influenced his song writing.

ROY WOOD & HIS BAND

THU 19th NOV 7:30pm
Floral Pavilion Theatre | £27.50

The Ivor Novello Award winner for Most Outstanding Song Collection enjoyed early multiple chart successes, including Flowers In The Rain, the first record to be played on BBC Radio One. Then in 1970, Roy teamed up with fellow Birmingham songwriter Jeff Lynne to form The Electric Light Orchestra.

GARY MURPHY'S GUITAR LEGENDS THE ROCK & ROLL YEARS

SAT 14th NOV 7:30pm
Floral Pavilion Theatre | £18

The story of guitar legends continues, this year, with a brand new, dynamic show featuring music from the Rock & Roll Years and including some of the greatest names in rock & pop music such as: Elvis Presley, Bill Haley, Buddy Holly, Chuck Berry, Duane Eddy, The Shadows, and The Beatles.

Performed by Gary Murphy and his multi-talented band, the show will also feature special guests Billy Kinsley (Merseybeats & Liverpool Express) The Cavern Club Beatles (Direct from Broadway), Elvis Clayton, Brian 'Saxophone' Jones, Gary Brown & Jade Tremarco.

Event Sponsor: WIRRAL NEWS

When Roy was approached to play on the Bo Diddley London Sessions album, he quickly formed a rock 'n' roll style pop band which he called Wizzard.

Wizzard went on to score seven major hit records, including one of the biggest Christmas anthems of all time, I Wish It Could Be Christmas Every Day and the rest, as they say, is history.

NEIL CAMPBELL & THE eMERGENCE BAND

SAT 21st NOV 8:00pm
Floral Pavilion Blue Lounge
£14 (£12)

The music of Liverpool guitarist and composer Neil Campbell draws on many musical styles and ranges from large scale multimedia extravaganzas, such as his take on Mary Shelley's Frankenstein (featuring choir, rock band, narration and visual projections), to intimate solo gigs.

This concert will feature new original music along with re-imagined pieces from his albums eMERgence (2015), Bulbs - On (2013), Ghost Stories (2008) and Particle Theory (2007), performed by The eMERgence Band, with wordless vocals from singers Anne Taft and Perri Alleyne-Hughes.

MODJANGO

FRI 6th NOV 7:30pm
The Queens Royal | £13 (£11)
Brendan McCormack Series

Father and son, Roy and Paul Gregory, have built a large and loyal following throughout the UK and Europe. Taking influences not only from Django Reinhardt, but also from modern day Gypsy Jazz guitarists, traditional Spanish music, Rock, Country, Classical and a host of other sources, Modjango have created a style encompassing the greatest aspects of each and applied it to "Jazz Manouche" Gypsy Swing Guitar.

'...the technical wizardry displayed by Paul Gregory; his lead style, interpretation and blistering technique are simply phenomenal.'

SIMPLY JAZZ

THEO TRAVIS DOUBLE TALK

THU 12th NOV 8:00pm
Floral Pavilion Blue Lounge
£16 (£14)

Saxophonist Theo Travis has constantly experimented as both player and composer. He has played alongside such jazz luminaries as Slim Gaillard and Jim Mullen as well as Robert Fripp, Bill Nelson, Gong and Soft Machine Legacy.

Double Talk features the amazing guitar work of Mike Outram, whose playing credentials have graced the work of Herbie Mann, Steve Wilson and Tim Garland as well as playing and touring with Robert Fripp.

The band is completed by Hammond Organ player, Pete Whittaker and drummer, Nic France.

The beautiful music created by Double Talk will bring together elements of experimentation and jazz improvisation at the highest level.

JOHN GOLDIE

SAT 7th NOV 7:30pm
The Queens Royal | £13 (£11)
Brendan McCormack Series

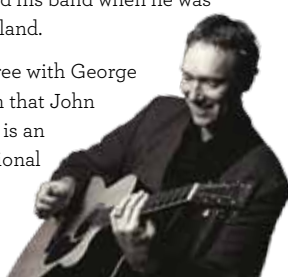

John is a world class acoustic guitarist with an ability to combine bass, chords, melody and groove together with an apparent ease that thrills audiences worldwide. He has worked with Martin Taylor both in duet and as part of the band, Spirit of Django. His solo albums have been praised by such luminaries as Ronnie Wood, Brian May and Andy Fairweather Low.

He has collaborated with fellow guitarists Tommy Emmanuel, Ike Issacs and George Benson, who was so impressed he asked John to perform a private concert for him and his band when he was in Scotland.

We agree with George Benson that John Goldie is an exceptional player.

THE PHIL CHISNALL BAND

SUN 8th NOV 8:00pm
Floral Pavilion Blue Lounge
£7.50

The Phil Chisnall Band make their sixth consecutive Guitar Festival appearance. Performing an eclectic mix of self-written and cover songs, they are sure to delight a packed house again. Look out for some local musicians guesting with the band again.

'The musicianship was wonderful. We had an absolutely superb evening and loved this band.'

GUITAR FESTIVAL
FEEDBACK FORM 2014

THE IMPOSSIBLE GENTLEMEN

SAT 14th NOV 8:00pm
Floral Pavilion Blue Lounge
£20 (£18)

This concert comes with a guarantee of excellence.

Guitarist, Mike Walker and pianist, Gwilym Symcock form the British pairing of this international jazz group. Steve Rodby and Adam Nusbaum, bass and drums respectively, represent the American side of the band. The term 'supergroup' seems the only appropriate description of The Impossible Gentlemen. Each player is a virtuoso on their instrument.

Mike and Gwilym are viewed as the cream of European contemporary musicians. Gwilym was shortlisted for the Mercury Music Prize for his solo piano album, Good Days at Schloss Elmau.

Steve Rodby is bassist and producer for Pat Metheny and also played for Art Pepper as well as numerous others. Adam Nusbaum has played with John Abercrombie, John Scofield, Sonny Rollins and Michael Brecker to name but a few.

RALPH MCTELL

FRI 20th NOV 7:30pm
Floral Pavilion Theatre | £21

One of the great storytellers, Ralph McTell celebrates 50 years as a professional musician.

Known for his virtuoso guitar style, he is primarily a prolific and gifted songwriter. With a style that invites you into a unique world, he weaves a narrative that is both significant and poignant.

Ralph made his debut in 1968 with the album Eight Frames a Second and in 1974 the release of Streets of London earned him an Ivor Novello Award. In 2002 he was presented with the prestigious Lifetime Achievement Award at the BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards.

MARTIN TAYLOR & ULF WAKENIUS

SUN 22nd NOV 8:00pm
Floral Pavilion Blue Lounge
£20 (£18)

A summit meeting between two of the finest guitarists in the world. Martin Taylor, who is established as possibly the finest guitarist of his generation, has a technique that is matchless; his musicality is sublime and encompasses many styles, from the brilliance of his interpretations of the music of Django Reinhardt to explorations of jazz fusion. The Guitar Festival commissioned Martin and trumpeter/composer, Guy Barker to write and perform a suite inspired by the music of Django that was later performed at the Proms.

Martin will be joined by Swedish guitarist, Ulf Wakenius, a former member of Oscar Peterson's Quartet and Ray Brown's Trio. Ulf has recorded many solo albums including the musical tribute to the late Esbjorn Svensson, Love Is Real. He has also recorded the music of Keith Jarrett on Notes from the Heart. Ulf is an outstanding guitarist.
