Craig 'fab-u-lous' one-man show to return next spring

Strictly favourite Craig Revel Horwood will bring his 'fab-u-lous' one-man show back to theatres next spring.

He'll go back on the road with his Songs Boys Don't Sing tour following a successful run this spring which ends on Saturday at the Alhambra Theatre in Dunfermline, Scotland.

The tour kicks off on April 22, 2026, at the Chequer Mead, East Grinstead, concluding at Whitby Pavillion on June 28.

Craig needs little introduction The longest-serving judge on BBC One's Strictly Come Dancing is the master of the Glitter Ball.

After starting as a dancer, he worked on the nation's biggest musicals and became a choreographer, director, and best-selling author.

Craig's also a remarkable singer, and to celebrate the release of his debut solo album, Revelations, he'll reveal his own, hidden talent during a Fab-U-Lous night of big songs, tall tales, and glamour.

He said: "The first run of this tour was such fun; there were songs, dance, plenty of Strictly sass. It was also full of surprises, and I can't wait to make it just as fab-u-lous next time!"

Tickets go on sale locally tomorrow (Friday, June 27, 2025) at 10am. More details at www.awaywithmedia.com/tours
