

JOHN BARROWMAN

MY LIFE IN Musicals

John Barrowman Brings Broadway Brilliance Back to the Stage in My Life In Musicals

John Barrowman is preparing to return to the stage this autumn with My Life In Musicals – a dazzling concert evening celebrating the greatest West End and Broadway musicals and the extraordinary career that has made him one of musical theatre's most beloved performers.

Earlier this year, a number of spring performances were postponed following the passing of John's mother, Marion, known to fans as 'Mama Barrowman'. Following an outpouring of love and support from audiences across the country, the postponed dates have now been successfully rescheduled and incorporated into the autumn tour, with Barrowman looking forward to returning to the stage and reconnecting with fans across the UK.

From the wings of the West End to the bright lights of Broadway, Barrowman has spent more than three decades captivating audiences with his powerhouse vocals, infectious charisma and unforgettable performances. Now, he invites audiences to join him for an evening packed with music, memories and theatrical magic.

Over the course of one electrifying night, audiences will step inside the stories behind his 23 leading roles across the West End and Broadway, relived with warmth, wit and unmistakable sparkle.

John Barrowman shared "From descending the staircase in Sunset Boulevard to sailing high in Anything Goes, from the passion and heartbreak of Miss Saigon to the razor-sharp brilliance of Company and the razzle-dazzle of Chicago, my life has been one glorious, glitter-dusted adventure. This tour is my love letter to every stage, every song, and every one of you who've cheered, cried, laughed and believed right along with me. The spotlight may shine on me, but the magic – that's always been ours. I can't wait to bring you My Life In Musicals."

From La Cage Aux Folles to The Phantom of the Opera and many more, there is laughter, nostalgia and no shortage of showstopping musical moments. There are beloved classics, unforgettable anthems and the larger-than-life personality that has earned Barrowman a devoted following around the world. More than a concert, My Life In Musicals is a celebration of theatre, storytelling and the enduring connection between performer and audience.

As the tour resumes this autumn, one thing is certain: when John Barrowman takes centre stage, the room sparkles a little brighter.

This is John Barrowman: My Life In Musicals
